A Vision of Flora.

Between long fields of roses Flora came,
Clad in a gown of gold and green,
Whose airy softness wrapped her like a dream.

That in a summer zephyr is seen;
This way and that it blew, and bent
to her.

The fairy outlines of a fringed flower;
But fairer than a flower the graces were.

That gave this queen of summer her fair power.

To somnolent blossoms sweet for every rosate hour.

As Flora passed the roses leaned to kiss.

Her velvet bosom and her dulcet eyes;
And as they stooped, the steep incline
of this

Soft motion poured the dew-drops showers wise.

From their damp petals, which, in linked guise

Of pearly necklaces, with magic sheen
Garlanded Flora's form; as maiden vies
With maiden so to deck their lady queen.

That hers may be the loveliest image ever seen.

Taliaferro-Jones.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Meade Jones, of this city, to Colonel C. Conway Taliaferro, of Roanoke, Va., took place very quietly in the home of Mrs. P. D. Everett, No. 3411 Holmead Street, Washington, at noon on Tuesday, June 12th.

The Rev. George Fluke Dudley was the officiating minister. Miss Everett was at the piano and played softly during the ceremony.

There were no attendants and only a few friends of the bride and groom were present. Roses and palms were used in decoration. The bride wore a gown of dark blue velvet and her only ornament was a handsome locket and chain, the gift of the groom.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, after which Mr. and Mrs. Taliaferro left for Roanoke, Va., where they will make their home.

But all sorts of things and weather

To make up a year
And a sphere,
And I think it no disgrace

If I'm not so large as you,
You are not so small as I,
And not half so spry.
I'll not deny you make

You Should See them Wiggle

When the Doctor says "it's coffee, stop it if you want to get well."

Oh! dear, what a mean doctor; but, then, plain facts are best to know, so we may cut out the things that hurt.

About 4 years ago a Cin. man went to Germany for his health and to consult one of the famous physicians in Berlin.

The Dr. found him a nervous wreck, suffering from loss of sleep and constipation, and about 50 lbs. off his usual weight.

But let him tell his own experience:

"The Dr. surprised me very much by asking at once if I was a coffee drinker, and on my telling him I used it two or three times a day, he said, 'It is poison to some persons.'"

"After carefully examining me he told me there was nothing the matter with me whatever but what could be entirely cured in 30 days by better coffee and other stimulants alone and dieting.

"So I put back home, and wife got some Postum Food Coffee for me.

"The first trial didn't please me, but we found it hadn't been boiled enough. The next meal it was fine.

"I seemed to begin to get well at once, and kept it up until I gained back my 50 lbs., and all the old sick times from coffee left for good. Now I am in prime health, fine appetite, and sleep like a boy."

ASKS EXTENSION.

Franchise of Southern Through Lynchburg About to Expire.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, Va., June 15.—The Southern Railway Company has made an application to the city for an extension of its franchise to operate its trains over Jefferson Street, through the city, as the franchise granted twenty-five years ago is about to expire. The heavy traffic of that system passes over Jefferson Street for a distance of five squares, and if the City Council should refuse to extend the grant, the main line of the system would be cut in two here. The company is constructing a double track belt line around the city, but this will not be completed, it is said, for two years, and even after completion, the company would want to continue the use of this street for freight business, as it has a number of spur tracks on it that are valuable to the company.

The Council Committee on Streets will take the matter up for consideration shortly.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE.

Small Interest in To-day's Congressional Primary.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, Va., June 15.—A temperance meeting in the court-house here last night was addressed by Rev. J.

W. West, of Richmond. The object of the meeting was to organize the Anti-Saloon League for Fredericksburg. A committee was appointed to recommend a list of officers and report to a meeting to be held later.

The City Democratic Committee is trying to work up interest in the Democratic primary to be held to-morrow to nominate a candidate for Congress from this district. The fact that the primary is held on Saturday, no issues are involved, and the contest is between two Democrats—Congressman W. A. Jones and Mr. Otto F. Mears, of Northampton—causes little interest to be manifested, and it is feared the vote will be small. Congressman Jones has many friends here, and it is expected that he will receive most of the votes.

COMING FOR PRISONER.

William Lee, Maryland Negro, to Be Taken First to Baltimore.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PRINCEANNE, MD., June 15.—By the order of Judge Henry Page, the Grand Jurors of the April term of court were summoned to appear in Princess Anne on Wednesday, June 14th, when a special session of the Circuit Court for Somerset county will be held to try William Lee, colored, now confined in Norfolk (Va.) jail, charged with criminally assaulting Mrs. G. Robert Barnes and Miss Frances Fowell last Sunday at Kingston, this county.

Sheriff Brown received the requisition yesterday, and will go to Norfolk and take the prisoner to Baltimore from there. He will be accompanied by the National Guard to protect the prisoner when he arrives here next week.

The jail is being guarded nightly by deputies sworn in by Sheriff Brown to protect Edward Watson, who is confined here for murderous assault upon Samuel S. Barnes. There has not been any demonstration here as yet of an attack upon the jail, but the authorities deem it advisable to use precaution.

Taylor Promoted.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LYNCHBURG, Va., June 15.—Edward M. Taylor, formerly of Richmond, who has been in charge of the traffic department of the Southern Bell Telephone Company here, has been promoted to the management of the Lynchburg district of that company, to succeed D. F. Turnbull, who was promoted to manager of the Richmond, Ala., district.

Under the Turnbull management the Lynchburg exchange earned the reputation as the model exchange in the South.

Improved Mail Facilities.

Arrangements are being perfected for a more rapid distribution of Richmond mail on the incoming trains of all the roads. Under the scheme now being perfected by Postmaster Cabell, letters for Richmond when properly addressed, will be practically distributed on the trains and ready when they reach the office to be handed over to the carriers, avoiding the delay of office distribution. That this quick service may be facilitated, it is necessary that letters should have upon them a full address, giving street and number. It may be worth the while for people to admonish their correspondents to give full addresses, street and number, with writing. Certainly the letters are likely to be more promptly delivered.

Bernhardt.

Mme. Bernhardt sails for home with a comfortable surplus of over $150,000 from her arduous tour. Even with that Americans are in her debt.

She came to the United States frankly to make more money, dashed from city to city with a convoy of press and business agents who could invent no advertisement so effective as her own bare genius, played 22 times in theatres, ten times in halls and under whatever shelter the locality happened to offer, and departs for France, carrying her sixty odd years with the same ease and grace as when she landed. It has been a tremendous physical feat and an unparalleled individual triumph, of which no other living actor is capable.—New York World.

CHARTERS BETTER ARMED THAN OFFICERS

Detective McMahon Captures Man Who Has Pistol and Black Jack.

James Charters, a negro, was found loitering around by Detective McMahon and was taken into custody. On the negro's person was found one revolver and one black-jack.

"Gee, but you are armed better than I am," said the Detective, as he went through the pockets of the negro.

"Ah keeps dem articles for protection," answered James, who was subject of "Whose protection?" queried the detective.

"Mah own," replied the negro.

"And just for my protection I am going to take you before Justice Crutchen and let him have a conversation with you," put in the officer.

"What happened before James landed before the One John yesterday morning. The trouble really will date back from yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock."

"I fear that some one will jump on you and kill you of any kind of thing."

"And I'd hate to hear of anything happening to you. This fear about your well-being leads me to request that you furnish me with security for your good behavior for twelve months."

"And in passing I might ask that you hand the sergeant there one hundred dollars."

The Court didn't laugh, and rather looked at the question before him as a pitcher would look over a batter when it was two and three.

"I guess that will make him sit up and take notice," put in the smiling Gibbons, who had fifteen cents on the ball game Thursday.

James walked back to the little cage to think the matter over.

Abraham Kaminsky was laboring at his trade on Sunday, when Officer Johnson caught him. His profession or trade is receiving things upon which people want some money. He paid $2 for the grievous wrong.

Newspaper Tributes.

On the demise of the late Henry Clay Payne, a concern in New York gathered from the papers published throughout the United States 4,885 newspaper stories of the life and career of the deceased.

These items were carefully mounted on Irish linen leaves and bound in 6 volumes, 400 pages to the book. A cover of genuine seal was appropriately lettered in gold and the entire material, representing the work of many people for several months, has just been delivered to Mrs. Payne at Milwaukee.

Mr. Burdette, who makes a specialty of this unique method of preserving family history, also compiled four volumes containing the letters, telegrams and cards of condolence received by the family, all constituting a family heirloom that will be handed down to future generations.

This work is one of the several developments of the press clipping industry and Mr. Burdette has made a special study of the work he created several years ago.
